ProComm 2025

Lost in Translation: Unveiling Structural Injustice in Algorithmic Language Technologies	1
Isidore Dorpenyo (George Mason University) and Anastasia Pestova (George Mason University)
The Impact of AI-Assisted Nature Identification Tools on Nature Observation Practices: An Exploration of Personal Data	4
Sonia Stephens (University of Central Florida)
The Nepali Digital Subaltern Counterpublics: Making Sense of Information Ecology at The Juncture of Global Power Competition	8
Asmita Ghimire (University of Minnesota Twin Cities)
Seeing Double: Content Replication in Pitch Decks and Oral Pitch Presentations	15
Paula Cabezas (University of Bremen)
A Critical Evaluation of 3 Minute Thesis (3MT): Initial Findings	21
Caitlin Baulch (University of Minnesota)
Visual Representations of Body Diversity in Technical Documentation: Toward a LEGO Friends Case Study	26
Carola Saalmueller (University of Minnesota)
A Theoretical Perspective on the Issue of Standardization of Fact-Checking in Data Journalism	31
Almabek Ibraimov (Maqsut Narikbayev University)
Extended Abstract: Minding the Communication Gap: A Case Study for Medium Accountability ...	38
Andrew Mara (Arizona State University)
Scholarly Borders and Meaning Making: Uncovering the Research Practice and Decision Making Process of an Integrative Literature Review	40
Carolyn Gubala (University of California Davis) and Lisa Melonçon (Clemson University)
Extended Abstract: An Alternative to Technical Communication Textbooks for Teaching Engineering Communication that is Made to Stick	47
Alan Chong (University of Toronto)

Uncovering Tacit Data in UX Research: Balancing Depth and Efficiency Through Immersive Methods	49
Guiseppe Getto (Mercer University) and Sanaa Strickland (Mercer University)
Extended Abstract: A Modular and Open-Source Human-in-the-Loop Qualitative Analysis Framework for Multimodal Data	56
Aneet D. Narendranath (Michigan Technological University), Chang Kyoung Choi (Michigan Technological University), and Radheshyam Tewari (Michigan Technological University)
Using Personas as a Multidisciplinary Design Tool for Social Justice in Engineering	58
Guiseppe Getto (Mercer University) and Michael Kerr Griffin (Mercer University)
Product Specifications As a Bridge for Understanding Audience and User Needs: Developing Writing Skills for Communicating Engineering Subject Matter	65
Joseph Jeyaraj (The City University of New York)
What Does the Minimal Viable Product Actually Help Us to Develop? Three Routes Toward a Design Methodology	72
Clay Spinuzzi (The University of Texas, Austin)
How Voice Quality Shapes a Speaker's Charismatic Impact – A Comparison of Three Languages	79
Oliver Niebuhr (University of Southern, Denmark) and Rongjie Shi (Nanjing Normal University)
Workshop: Equipping STEM Students with Effective Writing Instruction	89
Kelly Scarff (Virginia Tech), Angelo Biviano (Virginia Tech), Christine Burgoyne (Virginia Tech), Kathleen Carper (Virginia Tech), Josh Iorio (Virginia Tech), and Ashley Taylor (Virginia Tech)
Shaping AI Literacy and Understanding for Students and Educators: A Technical and Professional Communication Perspective	92
Darina M. Slattery (University of Limerick), Tiffany Bouelle (University of New Mexico), and Joseph Bartolotta (Hofstra University)
We Cannot Teach Engineering Communication, but, Just as Important, We Can and Do Teach Reflexivity	98
Rick Evans (Cornell University)
Making Meaning of Demography is Destiny in Professional Communication	102
Gabriel Lorenzo Aguilar (The University of Texas, Arlington) and Enrique Reynoso (University of Washington-Bothell)
The Evolution of Tactical Technical Communication: Digital Resistance and Kenyan Gen Z's Redefinition of Grassroots Activism in the Digital Age	110
Pacificah Mariita (The University of Texas, Arlington)
Workshop: Putting up the Bat Signal to Partner Technical and Communication Curricula	117
Allison Hutchison (Cornell University)
The Impact of Prosody and Gestures on Perceived CEO Charisma and Organizational Crisis Communication Outcomes	120
Christian Rudeloff (Macromedia University of Applied Sciences), Silke Tegtmeier (University of Southern Denmark), Oliver Niebuhr (University of Southern Denmark), and Ìo Valls-Ratés (University of Southern Denmark)

Workshop: So You Think You Want to Be a Department Chair	125
Saul Carliner (Concordia University)
Free Choice Learning Online: Using a Template- Based Approach to Design Virtual Museum Exhibitions	127
Saul Carliner (Concordia University)
Initial Exploration of Thematic Emergence in Students' Reflections Post an Entrepreneurially Minded Learning Activity	132
Aneet D. Narendranath (Michigan Technological University), Sirena Hargrove-Leak (Elon University), and Chang Kyoung Choi (Michigan Technological University)
Producing Transformative Knowledge on the Cutting Edge: The Hidden Role of Software Documentation in Massive Scientific Cyberinfrastructures	136
Sarah Read (Portland State University) and Jordan Frith (Clemson University)
Action Descriptions in Conflictual Conversations: A Study of Turn-Taking and Perception, Application in Contact Centers	141
Thomas Renaudin (Aix Marseille Univ, France)
A User Experience Approach to Technical Editing of Academic Library Digital Resources	148
Krista Speicher Sarraf (Cal Poly), Danielle Daugherty (Cal Poly), Morgan White (Cal Poly), and Madelyn Cruz (Cal Poly)
The Influence of Vlog Consumption and Emphatic Accents on the Perception of Voices on YouTube	155
Stephanie Berger (Kiel University, Germany)
Accessibility in Content and Form: Teaching a Multimodal Research Assignment	163
Lauren Kuryloski (University at Buffalo) and Amy Baird (University at Buffalo)
Frictionless UX and the Future of Professional Communication	168
Josephine Walwema (University of Washington)
First-Year Seminars to Enhance Engineering Education	173
Marina Choy (Johns Hopkins University), Amanda Hilliard (Johns Hopkins University), and Cara Dickason (Johns Hopkins University)
Promoting Personal Recovery Narratives for Engagement on YouTube: Mapping a Genre and the Signals It Sends	178
Michelle Cowan (Washington & Lee University), Victoria Bliley (Washington & Lee University), and Zachary Puckett (Washington & Lee University)
Exploring the Future of AI-Powered Design with Working Professionals: A Novel Design Jam Approach	185
Pitch Sinlapantakul (University of Washington) and Mark Zachry (University of Washington)
Workshop: AI-Driven Accessibility: Simplifying Content and Creating Multimodal Experiences....	190
Kim Wallace (Mercer University)
Designing a Computer-Based Listening Test for Engineering Learners in the English Classroom	192
Divya John (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering), Sneha Sriram Kannan (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering), and S Sasirekha (NITTTR, Chennai)

Extended Abstract: AI-Driven Memory Scripts for Effective Learning and Exam Preparation	199
Aravindhan Anbazhagan (Educereator (OPC) Pvt Ltd) and R Baskarasethupathi (Consultant)
Workshop: Mastering Data Storytelling for Effective Technical Communication	202
Aravindhan Anbazhagan (Educereator (OPC) Pvt Ltd)
The Role of Multimodal Features in Active Listening for Teamwork	204
S Sheema (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering, Chennai) and Divya John (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering, Chennai)
Sign Language Diversity and Its Impact on Global Communication: Towards a Unified Framework	212
Aravindhan Anbazhagan (Educereator (OPC) Pvt Ltd), Aryan Aryan (IEEE Member), and Labhanshi Mittal (CHRIST (Deemed-to-be) University)
Team Presentations in the Engineering Classroom: Challenges and Strategies	217
Ritu Sharma (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering, Chennai) and Divya John (Sri Sivasubramaniya Nadar College of Engineering, Chennai)
Mapping Engineering Communications in Canada: Reflections on Year 1	224
Lydia Wilkinson (University of Toronto), Jillian Seniuk Cicek (University of Manitoba), Xiran Cai (University of Toronto), and Nomiko Lkhagvadorj (University of Toronto)
AI-Assisted Qualitative Coding: Comparing Human to Machine Outputs	230
Amy Hodges (University of Texas, Arlington), Timothy Ponce (Texas State University), and Leslie Seawright (Missouri State University)
Race, Technology, and Trust: Examining the Cheating Discourse Among Black and Asian AI Users	234
Alia Hall (University of Central Florida, USA) and Yingzi Kong (University of Central Florida, USA)
Do Chatbots Dream of Data Streams? Play, Creativity, Personhood, and Generative AI in Engineering Communication	239
Mariel Krupansky (University of Michigan), Clay Walker (University of Michigan), and Colleen Hart (University of Michigan)
The Business Model Canvas in Entrepreneurial Communication: A Genre-Based Integrative Review	244
Mason Pellegrini (Texas Tech University) and Clay Spinuzzi (University of Texas at Austin)
Situational Awareness in TPC - the AI Shift has only Just Begun	252
Bremen Vance (Mercer University) and Jennifer Jackson (Mercer University)
Extended Abstract: Probed Language-Based Assessments Using Spoken Language	258
Zhuojun Gu (Lund University), Rajath Rao (Stony Brook University), August Håkan Nillson (Oslo Metropolitan University), Veerle Eijsbroek (Lund University), and Oscar Kjell (Lund University)
Sounds Good: Dictation Software, Translingualism, and Multimodal Productivity	261
Sara S. Martin (University of Texas, Arlington)

What It Means to Be an Engineer: Teaching Humanity in Engineering Education	267
Joseph Forte (Johns Hopkins University), Berkley Conner (Johns Hopkins University), and Elizabeth Walker (Johns Hopkins University)
Extended Abstract: Shadow and Signal: The Historicity of Nonverbal Communication	272
David Ward (University of Wisconsin-Madison)
The Death of STC: A Loss for Me But What Does It Mean for the Profession?	274
Saul Carliner (Concordia University)
Advocating for Accessibility in the Workplace, in the Classroom, and on the Web	280
Mary Glavan (Rice University), Molly E. Ubbesen (University of Minnesota Rochester), Kim Wallace (Mercer University), Anne-Marie Womack (Rice University), and Louise Zamparutti (University of Wisconsin-La Crosse)
Against the Reading Response: Digital Meaning Making Through Social Annotation and Authentic Content Genres	288
Gavin Johnson (Texas Christian University) and Allegra W. Smith (Georgia Institute of Technology)
Measuring the Persuasive Effects of Narrative Visualizations	296
Matthew Chambers (Clemson University) and Bryan Denham (Clemson University)
Making Meaning Through Oral Portfolio Defenses: A Pilot Project	305
Sarah Gunning (Towson University), Elizabeth Eakes (Towson University), and Lydia Hadfield (Towson University)
Career Networking Through Informational Interviews: Helping Technical Communication Students Make Meaning	310
Marsha Maxwell (Brigham Young University), Lisa Bernotski Johnson (Brigham Young University), Maren Johnson Schulzke (Brigham Young University), and Jeffrey Johnson (Brigham Young University)
Meaning Creation in Multimodal Communication with Specific Reference to Sound Symbolism and Language Evolution	318
Georgi Dimitrov (University of National and World Economy, Bulgaria)
Extended Abstract: Using Point-Predict Observations to Improve Mechanical Engineering Students' Research Article Introductions	321
Joanna Wolfe (Carnegie Mellon University) and Sarah Mansfield (Carnegie Mellon University)
Challenging Professional Norms Through Narrative Inquiry and Disability Justice: A Teaching Case Study	323
Kristin C. Bennett (University of Oklahoma)
Extended Abstract: Accessible Abstracts: Mapping Publishers' Focus on Plain-Language Summaries, Graphic Abstracts, and Video Abstracts	331
Kira Dreher (Carnegie Mellon University - Qatar)
Extended Abstract: The Construction of the Archetypes, Tripartite Self and Corporate Culture in Small Stories of China's Corporate Social Media	334
Ya Sun (University of International Business and Economics), Dicong Gou (University of International Business and Economics), and Gongyuan Wang (University of International Business and Economics)

Extended Abstract: Neural-Network Based Auditory Feedback Modulation in Real-Time	337
Henning Eikens (Kiel University), Karolin Krüger (Kiel University), Finn Röhrdanz (Kiel University), Gerhard Schmidt (Kiel University), and Isabel Schiller (RWTH Aachen University)
Extended Abstract: Co-Creating Engineering Capstone Curriculum	340
Hudson Tumey (Cornell University), Luke Stewart (Cornell University), and Allison Hutchison (Cornell University)
Counterclaims and Refutations: An Analysis of Students' Handling of Opposing Arguments	344
Robert Irish (University of Toronto) and Lisa Romkey (University of Toronto)
Audio-Visual Perception of Speaker Traits	351
Anabell Hacker (Technische Universität Berlin)
Cloning Dialects: Recreating and Localizing Dialectal Voices	358
Hanna Fischer (University of Rostock), Alfred Lameli (Philipps University Marburg), Martha Schubert (Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg), and Ingo Siegert (Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg)
